EUCMA Past Get-Together Events

Spring time is the season that always brings new energy, new ideas and a lot of fun for everyone. Thus also EUCMA members all over China found it a good time to experience new things during the last get-togethers in April, which tend to become already a good tradition for strengthening our network.

In the last month Beijingers had come “closer” while learning some salsa steps together. Some danced, some watched, some did other stuff like “playing football”. Have a look:

Beijing Get-Together, April 13th, Salsa at Dafei Jiuba

Beijing Get-Together, April 13th, “the other stuff” at Dafei Jiuba

We are sure those of you who missed it, regret not being able to come, but do not look what lies behind, come and join the next get-together in Beijing this month on 25th May. All details on the first page of this edition.

We spied on Shanghai as well and see what we have found:

Shanghai, 24th April, the Dutch-Chinese Centre, Photo Exhibition We Are The World

Shanghai, April 24th, Dinner

What is your opinion about the EUCMA Info Letter? Would you like to improve it? Please send your suggestions to info.eucma@gmail.com

Visit us at www.eucma.org

And now we go to the South in Shenzhen, which even if far from Beijing, nothing remains hidden from EUCMA info team. These people were crazy, having run for an hour ended up sitting on a block of ice drinking beer. Nobody mentioned that the Shekou Hash is all about finding a reason for cheers....

EUCMA members in China hope that this monthly updated info letter on upcoming and past events could encourage members in Europe to come together in a similar way and expand the network as far as to the West and East of Europe.
